BLACK ANARCHISM

by

Ashanti Alston

This talk will explore the history and possible future of black anarchism. It will cover anarchistic elements in African traditions, anti-authoritarian moments in America's black liberation movement, and the possible contours of a black anarchism for the new millennium.

Ashanti Alston is a former member of the Black Panther Party and former prisoner-of-war (Black Liberation Army). He is presently a member of Estación Libre/People of Color Zapatista Support Group, a board member of the Institute for Anarchist Studies, and the Northeast U.S. Coordinator for Critical Resistance.

The Institute for Anarchist Studies is a nonprofit foundation established in 1996 to support the development of anarchism. We are primarily a grant-giving organization for radical writers: we have funded over thirty projects by authors from countries such as Argentina, Canada, Chile, Ireland, Mexico, Nigeria, Germany, South Africa, and the United States.
